Sales Manager's Message

Welcome to the first edition of the GemLife Lennox Head newsletter for the year.

I hope you spent your Christmas break making wonderful memories with your friends and family, and are rejuvenated to take on the new year in full swing!

2018 will prove to be a busy year, with new staff coming on board in the Sales Team. We also have had 50 deposits taken over the last few months which is so very exciting.

Our deposit holders finished the year in style at the Beef and Beach hotel overlooking the water at Seven Mile Beach.

Canapes and drinks were enjoyed and some walked away with lucky door prizes as well!

With so many exciting things planned, 2018 is definitely going to be an adventure. We are endeavouring to start our civils in February and March and literally get things moving at GemLife Lennox Head.

It is easy to imagine living in a home as eloquent as the Sea Spray. With an open living atmosphere, it offers rooms to create a home that suits your own interior ethos. It includes three generously spaced bedrooms, two modest sized bathrooms, and a fantastic kitchen that has been dynamically designed.

Use the courtyard to sit and read a favourite book, whilst the others watch the television in the lounge room. This provides you the benefit of having your own piece of serenity and tranquillity. It is easy to imagine, breathing in the fresh ocean air on a summer morning whilst you read the morning paper- simply perfection!

The steam and heat help muscles relax, soothe the mind and rejuvenate the body.

Hot Stuff

Most of us like to take a little time to focus on our body and health. What better way than to utilise your own spa and of course, sauna. Originating from Finland, these enclosed spaces allow for you to experience a dry or wet heat session that traditionally, acts as a social occasion too.

The health benefits of using a sauna have been discussed for hundreds of years. Sauna use may relieve symptoms of the common cold, help rheumatic arthritis, fight chronic fatigue syndrome and recently, one study has connected it to reducing the risk of Alzheimer's and dementia.

Using Harvia Sauna Heaters, made in Finland, our saunas bring outstanding Scandinavian quality and performance to our club houses. Just steps away from your front door, you can pamper your body as much as you wish.

For more information about our saunas and other facilities, contact us on: 1800 571 954 or email at: melanie@gemlife.com.au
